

FAIR TRADE NO BRIBERY

Some of the up-state exchanges have been agitating the proposition of annexing that part of California lying east of the summit of the Sierras to the state of Nevada, claiming that that section has nothing in common with the rest of California and that its interests could be much better looked after by the sovereign state of Nevada.

Now, when it comes to slicing states we are up against a hard proposition, but while we are at it we might as well chop off the "golden triangle" and add it to California. This would make an exchange, and might work to the advantage of this section.

We do all our business with California. We have to go to California to get out of here, even if we go to the county seat. Our mail to the rest of the state, even Crescent some sixteen miles away, is carried as far in reaching its destination as is our mail to Los Angeles, and mail to Carson City, the state capital, must travel farther to the mail sent to San Francisco. I seem that if Inyo, Mono and Alpine counties in California naturally belong to Nevada, the southern part of Nevada just as naturally belongs to California.—Searchlight Bulletin.

A TENSE TRAGEDY

He clasped her waist. With a sigh the beautiful girl looked into his eyes. "Please!" she whispered. "No!" he muttered. She bent forward until her soft hair brushed his face. Still he grasped her waist. She pleaded with him to loosen his clasp, but he was obdurate. Suddenly her eyes flashed with the fire of wrath. She glared at him with the berserker rage that slumbers in the soul of all women. Daunted to some extent, he treated slightly, but tenaciously kept his hold on her waist. "I command you!" she cried. "Command nothing!" he answered. "I got my orders that I don't let you have that waist till I see that $10 C. O. D. and I guess know my business." Then with a soft shudder she dug up the money and got her waist.

SHORTAGE DISCOVERED.

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 28.—Following the discovery of a shortage in the state auditor's office, the matter was called to the attention of Governor Cruce today by State Auditor Meyer.

In a statement tonight, Mr. Meyer said: "We found an actual shortage thus far of $3000, the result of the manipulation of agricultural and mechanical college fund I believe, however, the amount will be far in excess of this figure."

ZEB KENDALL IS STILL BOOSTING MANHATTAN

Zeb Kendall, the optimist and booster, is in from Manhattan for a few days. Mr. Kendall says that the northern camp is bound to attract capital as the production of that camp at present is causing mining men to sit up and take notice. Zeb is working away on his lease which is only a short distance from the Big Four and is driving a cross-cut. Mrs. Kendall came in with him and is visiting friends in this city.

IN HABIT OF TAKING A STRONG DRAM

An old worthy who was in the habit of calling each evening at the village inn for a "drop o' the best" found the landlord one night putting a shine on the taps. After a few remarks about the weather he received the nightly dram.

After he had gone the land lord discovered to his horror that he had supplied Donald with a half gill of bottle of sulphuric acid which he had been using for cleaning the traps. Every moment he expected to hear of old Donald's death, and his relief was great when the old worthy arrived next evening. "Donald what did you think o' that whusky ye got last night?"

Donald—it was a fine dram, a good warming dram, but it had wan fault. Every time I coughed it set fire to my whiskers.—Ideas.

LIVES ARE LOST IN FIRE ON OIL BARGES

PORT ARTHUR, Texas, June 28.—Two lives were lost, half a dozen or more men were injured, some seriously, three oil barges, and one tug were burned to the water's edge, and about 10,000 barrels of oil, two large warehouses and more than 500 feet of wharves were destroyed as a result of an explosion, followed by a fire, in the harbor and water front today. The loss was estimated at about $300,000.

Captain Frank Weber of the barge Humble and an unidentified man lost their lives in an explosion aboard the Humble, where the fire originated.

NO MORE LAYOFFS IN SPARKS SHOPS

News that will bring joy to the hearts of the residents of the town of Sparks, reached that section yesterday when the report was given out that the men employed by the Southern Pacific company would be required to work nine hours for six days in the week hereafter, instead of five days a week as has happened of late. It is expected that the increase in the working hours will mean an increase in the force. Several of the big engines used for the heavy work in going over the summit are in the shops undergoing repairs and as soon as they are turned for duty others will be sent in for overhauling.

ITALIANS WOUNDED.

ALWAYS PLAYS THE GREEN

The attache of a European embassy was very much attracted by a western girl of great beauty and still greater wealth at a summer resort, and in order to interest her deeply he fell into the habit of discoursing at length on his family tree and telling her that ancestry was of great value to a man.

The girl from the west had been brought up in a section of the country where every man was accepted for what he was, and not because of what his ancestors had been or done. She began to be bored by the attache's lectures on pedigree.

"Blue blood," he remarked one day, "is something not everybody can boast of."

"Oh, yes," she argued indifferently, "but what's the use of blood if you haven't got the long green?"

JUDGE TO CONSIDER A DIRECTED VERDICT

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 28.—Judge E. B. Kinkead of the common plea court will today upon a motion by attorneys for Rodney J. Diegel, sergeant at arms of the state senate, charged with abetting legislative bribery, to direct the jury to return a verdict of acquittal.

The state did not rest as promptly as expected, owing to a decision to identify in open court Senator L. R. Andrews of Lawrence county, and Senator George K. Cetome of Montgomery county, as two men to whom, it is alleged, bribes of $200 each were paid.

The identification was made by Detective Smiley, although the defense stated its willingness to admit that Smiley would testify these two senators were among those to whom he had paid the bribes.

FATAL POWDER EXPLOSION

PEORIA, Ill., June 28.—An explosion at the plant of the Western Powder company, at Edwards station this afternoon resulted in the death of two men and the demolition of the plant. The explosion is supposed to have started by a spark. The bodies of the two men were blown a distance of 150 feet and terribly mangled.
